Weekly Picks From the Band

Book of the Week

God Explained In A Taxi Ride by advertising and design legend Paul Arden takes an exciting, visually creative, and thoroughly digestible approach to a subject of enormous proven interest and relevance. Using a series of poignant, contemporary vignettes, God Explained in a Taxi Ride analyzes and explores the questions that have persisted since mankind's earliest days. This brilliant little gem of a book compels readers to scratch their heads as it examines man's relationship to the divine—all within the length of a taxi ride.

Movie of the Week

Princess Mononoke is a 1997 Japanese animated historical fantasy feature film written and directed by Hayao Miyazaki of Studio Ghibli. A period drama set specifically in the late Muromachi period of Japan but with numerous fantastic elements, the film concentrates on the struggle between the supernatural guardians of a forest and the humans who consume its resources as seen by the outsider Ashitaka. "Mononoke" is not a name, but a general term in the Japanese language for a spirit or monster.

Album of the Week

Deftones - Diamond Eyes is the sixth studio album by American rock band, featuring singles "Rocket Skates" as well as title track, "Diamond Eyes", landing at #6 on the Billboard 200 in it's first week.

Website of the Week

Save Tigers Now is a global campaign by WWF that runs during the Chinese Year of the Tiger, 2010. Our goal is to build political and public support to double the number of wild tigers by 2022, the next Year of the Tiger.
